DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 21-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lynam 6522451 in view of Marhauer 4306770.

The limitations of these claims stand rejected as discussed previously, except that Lynam in view of Marhauer does not teach the planar second half(50) to be continuous with the curved second half(55) (see Lynam fig. 5G). However, mirrors with continuous planar and curved portions are well known in the art. Further, it has been held that omission of an element and its function in a combination where the remaining elements perform the same functions as before involves only routine skill in the art. In re Karlson, 136 USPQ 184. Thus, it would have been obvious at the time of invention to remove the demarcation element(65) of Lynam in order to provide an unobstructed view and a smooth transition between the curved and planar portions.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 4/8/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant has argued with respect to claim 21 that the references do not show a continuous transition between the planar and curved portions of the mirror. However, such a modification would have been obvious for the reasons set forth above and thus does not patentably distinguish the present invention over the prior art.

Applicant has also argued with respect to claim 25 that the references fail to teach the planar portion located distally to the vehicle and the curved portion located proximally to the vehicle. However, as noted in the previous office action, this arrangement is clearly shown by the primary reference Lynam in fig. 5G (note also col. 13 lines 14-20).

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
